Coalitions 53

Northwoods Coalition is the largest and oldest coalition dedicated to substance abuse prevention in Wisconsin. Representatives from 53 coalitions in a 34-county region, including the 11 Wisconsin Tribal Nations, serve on a non-governing advisory board to help shape policies, practices and programs to address public health issues arising from use of alcohol and other drugs. Marshfield Clinic staff provide support including education, training, technical assistance and other resources to members of Northwoods Coalition.

The Marshfield Clinic AmeriCorps program has been in existence since 2000. Over the past 16 years, 698 members have served in Marshfield Clinic AmeriCorps programs. The Tribal AmeriCorps Program (TAP), a partnership with the Tribal State Collaboration for Positive Change and Northwoods NiiJii Enterprise Community, Inc., has been in existence since 2010. To date, 78 members have served local Tribal coalitions. Members provide support for substance abuse prevention programs, practices and policy approaches.

Since 2007, through a contract with Wisconsin Department of Health Services, Marshfield Clinic has served as a Regional Center for the Alliance for Wisconsin Youth. The purpose of the Alliance for Wisconsin Youth is to enhance and support the capacity of coalitions in substance abuse prevention and youth development. Over 100 Wisconsin coalitions are members of the Alliance for Wisconsin Youth, including those belonging to Northwoods Coalition.

"Prevention work in northern Wisconsin is not an easy task, but having support on a regional level is collaboration at its best. We have a problem and want to tackle it on a bigger level, so we contact Northwoods Coalition and Marshfield Clinic to coordinate. There is something to be said about making a difference on a bigger scale to reach the masses. That is Northwoods Coalition."

Neurobiology of Addiction was based on groundbreaking research on the issue of addiction as a brain disease and its impact on the powerful motivational systems of behavior. Participants learned the difference between substance abuse, dependency and addiction, and the implications of alcohol and other drugs on motivational states and subsequent behavior. Participants identified a public policy statement around the brain disease concept to be used for advocacy against stigma and discrimination, and developed concrete examples of how this information can be used in the treatment setting.

Parents Who Host Lose the Most

The Parents Who Host Lose the Most public awareness campaign, developed by the Ohio Drug-Free Action Alliance, addresses the legal consequences of parents/adults hosting parties and events such as graduations, proms and other gatherings that involve underage drinking. This campaign has three essential components:
- providing public information
- media advocacy
- law enforcement support

Since 2009, this campaign has been supported by Wisconsin Department of Health Services and Wisconsin Department of Transportation.

Barron County Community Coalition members pose for a photo with law enforcement officers to support the Parents Who Host Lose the Most campaign.
